

FC United of Manchester Recruitment and Selection Code of Practice

FC United seeks to ensure that all candidates for employment and voluntary roles at the Club are treated fairly, and that selection is based solely on the individual merits of candidates and on selection criteria relevant to the post. In pursuance of this aim and of its statutory duties, FC United, as an employer committed to the principle of equality of opportunity, will adhere to the following procedure in the conduct of the recruitment and selection process for all advertised posts.

Selection criteria

Selection criteria will be clearly defined and reflected in the further particulars sent to candidates, which will also include details of the Club's commitment to equality of opportunity. Job qualifications or requirements which would have the effect of inhibiting applications from individuals possessing one or more protected characteristic as defined by the Equality Act 2010 (namely age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation) will not be demanded or imposed except where they are justifiable in terms of the job to be done, and this will be made clear in the advertisement and/or further particulars.

(For the purposes of this code, "racial group" means a group of persons defined by reference to colour, race, nationality, or ethnic or national origins.)

Advertising

To ensure a range of candidates are attracted to apply for the posts job advertisements will be publicised via the Club website and placed with appropriate agencies and networks.

All job advertisements placed on behalf of FC United will state the Club's commitment to equality of opportunity by including a footnote or final note indicating this. Further particulars for posts will quote the following summary of the Club's Equality Policy and will make reference to the Club's family leave provisions and the availability of Club childcare. They should also state that further particulars will be made available in large print, audio, or other formats on request by a disabled applicant.

Summary of the Club's Equal Opportunities Policy

The policy and practice of the Club require that all staff are afforded equal opportunities within employment. Entry into employment with the Club and progression within employment will be determined only by personal merit and the application of criteria which are related to the duties of each particular post and the relevant salary structure. In all cases, ability to perform the job will be the primary consideration. Subject to statutory provisions, no applicant or member of staff will be treated less favourably than another because of gender, marital status, race, ethnic origin, colour, nationality, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, religion or age.

Selection of candidates

The ability of each candidate to perform the job description will be compared objectively against the selection criteria for that job, and all applications for a post will be processed in the same way. Information sought from candidates and passed to those responsible for appointments will relate only to the qualifications for or requirements of the job. The Club recognises its statutory obligation to make such adjustments to the workplace and to working arrangements as are reasonable to accommodate suitably qualified disabled applicants.

Wherever suitably qualified persons are available, there will be at least one panel member independent of the club and a member of each gender on each selection panel. All members of the selection panel will be aware of this code and training and advice will be available in furtherance of its principles.

Interview questions will relate to the selection criteria. No questions will be based on assumptions for example about roles in the home and the family. In particular, questions about private personal relationships, children, or domestic obligations will not be asked at interview, although candidates may request information on relevant staff benefits and policies. Where it is necessary to obtain information on personal circumstances (for example, in relation to a selection criterion such as flexibility to work irregular hours), questions about this will be asked equally of all candidates and, like other questions, will relate only to the job requirements.

In the case of disabled applicants who identify themselves at the application stage, appropriate interview arrangements (such as accessible interview rooms or the assistance of a sign language interpreter) will be offered to enable such candidates to compete on an equal basis.

Record-keeping

Details of candidates and of selection decisions (including the rationale for selection or rejection) will be kept for six months after an appointment has been made. The Club will supply reasonable feedback to unsuccessful candidates on request during that period.

The Club will request details of the gender, ethnicity, and any disability of its staff and of all candidates and of those shortlisted and appointed. Recruitment monitoring is done anonymously in the central Equality and Diversity Unit and details of candidates are not provided to any member of the selection panel. The gender composition of selection panels will also be monitored.

Records may be used to determine whether members of one gender or persons of a certain racial group or those with a disability do not apply for employment, or apply in smaller numbers than might be expected, or are shortlisted or appointed in a lower proportion than their application rate, or are concentrated for example in certain jobs, faculties, or sub-faculties. Where such under-representation is identified, positive action initiatives will be developed in accordance with relevant national legislation.

Review of recruitment practice

Recruitment procedures and practices will be kept under review so as to ensure that this code is operating effectively.
